Abstract

This study aims to determine the effect of product quality, price perception, store atmosphere, and word of mouth on consumer repurchase interest in Numani Kopi in an Islamic perspective (a case study on consumers of Numani Kopi in the DKI Jakarta area). The sample in this study were 125 visitors to Numani Kopi who live in DKI Jakarta. Data were collected using a survey method with a questionnaire instrument. The data analysis method used is Partial Least Square Structural Equation Modeling (PLS-SEM). The results showed that (1) product quality had a positive and significant effect on repurchase interest (2) price perception had a positive and significant effect on repurchase interest (3) store atmosphere had a positive and significant effect on repurchase interest (4) word of mouth had a positive effect and significant to repurchase interest (5) product quality, price perception, store atmosphere, and word of mouth can be used as models that influence repurchase interest. In the Islamic perspective, repurchase interest is not prohibiting humans from fulfilling their needs or desires. Everything on this earth was created for the benefit of humans, but humans are ordered to consume halal and good goods or services fairly, not excessively, and in accordance with Islamic law.
